paul joseph brown

PHOTOGRAPHY

2822 NE 68th, Seattle, WA 98115
http://www.ecosystemphoto.com
E-mail: paul@pauljosephbrown.com Phone: 206-462-8554

Experience

Global Health Photography 2009 - Present
Principal

Photography for marketing and training. With a 30-year career in award-winning photojournalism, PJB's photos capture a sentiment that never fails to move its audience.

Clients include:

GAPPS: Global Alliance to Prevent Prematurity and Stillbirth.
SiteLife: The World Through New Eyes
Compassion & Choices: A nonprofit organization that advocates for excellent end-of-life care and expanded choice.

Ecosystem Photography 2003 - Present
Principal

Award-winning firm specializing in photographs of marine environments and ecosystems for corporations, governmental organizations, mitigation banks, public affairs firms and non-profits.

Clients include:

Boeing | Bluefield Holdings | Port of Seattle | Seattle Aquarium
Sorensen Ideas | Harris & Smith Public Affairs
Duwamish River Cleanup Coalition | AVA Publishing

Seattle Post-Intelligencer 1988 - 2009
Staff photographer/editor

Photo editor for news, sports, features and special projects, working with wire service and photo agency archives to fulfill photo needs for newspaper sections. Projects and assignments throughout Asia, Central America and Africa.

The Dallas Morning News 1984 - 1988
Senior Staff Photographer

Worked on the photo-editing desk, with agencies, wire services and their archives to fulfill photo needs. For all sections of a 500,000 circulation daily newspaper.
Specialized in news-related photo essays.
Staff photographer for “Dallas Life,” the Sunday magazine of The Dallas Morning News.
Projects and assignments in Central America, Asia, Africa and Europe.

Anchorage Daily News 1980 - 1984
Staff Photographer/Photo editor

Projects and assignments throughout Alaska.

Freelance Photography Experience

1990 - Present

Clients include: Boeing, King County Council, Seattle City Council, the Seattle Public Library, Time, Newsweek, People, The New York Times, Los Angeles Times, Washington Post, Virginia Mason Medical Center, NBBJ, Seattle Aquarium, Bailey-Boushay House, Pacific Northwest Ballet, Cornish College of the Arts, Seattle Children's Hospital, Bluefield Holdings, Smith and Harris Pubic Affairs, Agence France Presse, Waggener Edstrom, and Northwest Harvest.

Education

Ohio University 1980 - 1984
Master of Science, Journalism

Specialized in photojournalism, photo editing, and documentary photography.
Studied writing and editing.
Thesis: Historical study of Magnum Photos, the legendary agency of documentary photographers based in New York and Paris.

University of Toronto 1976 - 1980
Bachelor of Arts, Honors

Majored in Politics and Economics. Minored in History and English
Undergraduate thesis: American foreign policy in the Third World

Skills

Photojournalism
Photoshop
Creative Director of marketing videoclips
Portrait photography
Quickly establish rapport with diverse individuals and groups
Good communicator
Work well in group settings
Always make deadlines

Awards

PJB's photographs have been recognized by:
The National Press Photographers Association
The Associated Press
Pictures of the Year
World Press Awards
The Society of Newspaper Design
The Best of the West, and
The Society of Professional Journalists.

PJB's photographs have been nominated for the Pulitzer Prize nine times.
PJB is a five-time winner of the National Headliner Award.

Volunteering

Veterans Administration 2012 - Present
Volunteer/Researcher for Mindfulness for Vets Program

REFERENCES SUPPLIED UPON REQUEST